CHRIS HANDSCOMB

Investment Advisor

RBC Dominion Securities | RBC Wealth Management

As your direct point of contact, Chris specializes in Wealth Management Strategies as an investment-advisory discipline, focusing on financial planning and investment portfolio management. As an Investment Advisor, Chris has over 9 years' experience in the financial industry advising working with an institutional money manager and advising clients.

After working with one of Canada's top financial planning teams, Chris focuses on the big picture approach rather than only one aspect of your finances. Incorporating asset management, tax planning, risk management, along with retirement and estate planning ensures clients are efficiently working towards their goals. Chris believes that the fundamental principles of honesty, integrity and transparency are the foundation to building a lasting client/advisor partnership.

Outside of the office, he has enjoyed teaching financial planning and literacy to young people and students. Furthermore, Chris enjoys hockey, cooking for friends and family, and time to travel with his wife and children.

Chris is happily married to his wife Denise, and the proud father to his daughter Charlotte and son Lucas.
